Dear Guillermo:

Enclosed is the client copy of the Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax (Form 990) for the year ended December 31, 2011. The Form 990 has been electronically filed with the IRS on your behalf.

Also enclosed a copy of the Form 990 to be provided to those individuals requesting to review or obtain a copy of the tax return. The public disclosure and inspection requirements and the Pension Protection Act of 2006 mandate that the Form 990 be available for inspection for three years after the later of the due date of the return or the date the return is filed. It is also required that the original Application of Exemption (Form 1023) and the IRS letter that grants the organization its exempt status be available for inspection. Copies of these documents are required to be provided to any individual upon written or in-person request without charge, other than reasonable fees for copying and postage. You may fulfill this requirement by placing these documents on the Internet. Penalties may be imposed for failure to comply with the public inspection requirements.

It is understood that you have provided us with the basic information required for preparation of this return. The tax laws provide that the obligation of a preparer is based only on information of which the preparer has knowledge. Accordingly, the completeness and accuracy of the information you provide us remain the responsibility of your management. You have final and full responsibility for the income tax return. We understand that your staff is responsible for all other tax returns not included here, such as payroll, property, and sales tax returns.

Under U.S. Treasury rules issued in 2005, we must inform you that any advice in this communication to you was not intended or written to be used, and cannot be used, to avoid any government penalties that may be imposed on a taxpayer.

If you have any questions, please call Rachel Spurlock at 502-420-4522.
